The family gets shocked when they hear that their son has died, and that his death was not of natural causes. This makes them wonder if the death was a murder. Hence, the police are called in to investigate the matter. Two years later, the police finds a murdered body of a young man buried in the jungle. This sparks the investigation into who murdered him and who was his stepson, Balraj. The police go to see the stepson, Laxmi Thapa, at the office of his company to question him about the murder. Laxmi Thapa denies all knowledge of Balraj's death. This sparks up a suspicion among the police, when they find out that a murder takes place two years ago and that the body was buried in the jungle. The police find out that Balraj had a secret affair with Laxmi Thapa's wife, Savita, when Balraj was a child. The police then go to see Raunak, only to be told that he is dead, stabbed in the neck by an unknown person. The only person who could identify this person is Balraj. The police are frustrated and forced to release Balraj because they can't find out who murdered Raunak. The next day, Balraj is shot by a woman named Ambika when she sees him and Savita leaving a shop. Balraj and Savita are taken to the hospital, but Savita dies during the operation.
